Description: (attach supplementary materials if needed)

We found that a subscription to edhelper.com ($60/year allows you to save your lists/work; $20/year doesn't allow saving) will allow you to integrate spelling, word walls, cloze activities, as well as creating worksheets that will merge with the Scholastic literacy program.

You can choose words from reading texts, type in your list, and edhelper will create worksheets, puzzles, activities, and word walls with your words. It saves buying separate spelling books and further integrates the literacy program.

edhelper.com will create worksheets for every subject and every grade. Worksheets will change with a click of the mouse. I use it for supplementing math skills, social studies, and science activities.
