Description: (attach supplementary materials if needed)

Pick up a set of 6-10 brochures or maps from areas that you travel to. They can become lit sets. Integrate them with socials, science, whatever topic fits. Add writing by using the addresses included to write letters, postcards, or questions the students may have. Plan a trip using advertisements for attractions or businesses included in a map.

Brochures are generally free and can be used as a teaching or supplemental tool.
