(Thank you to Dr. Eunice Warfield, Superintendent of Schools, South Central Conference of SDA for providing these quotes)

January 2012

First Week:

All Children Should Have Opportunity for Christian Education

"All the youth should be permitted to have the blessings and privilege of an education at our schools, that they may be inspired to become laborers together with God." 6T 197

Second Week:

Education - A High and Noble Work

"He who cooperates with the divine purpose is imparting to the youth a knowledge of God, and moulding the character into harmony with His, does a high and noble work." Ed. 19

"There is no work more important than the education of our youth." CT 46

"Special care should be given to the education of the youth... This is the noblest missionary work that any man or woman can undertake." CT 168

Third Week:

Source and Aim of True Education

"Our ideas of education take too narrow and too low a range. There is need of a broader scope, a higher aim. True education means more than the pursual of a certain course of study. It means more than a preparation for the life that now is. It has to do with the whole being, and with the whole period of existence possible to man. It is the harmonious development of the physical, the mental, and the spiritual powers. It prepares the student for the joy of service in this world and for the higher joy of wider service in the world to come." Ed. 13

Fourth Week:

The Basis of True Education

"Love, the basis of creation and of redemption, is the basis of true education." Ed. 16

February 2012

First Week:

The Work of True Education

“Every human being, created in the image of God, is endowed with a power akin to that of the Creator – individuality, power to think and to do. The men in whom this power is developed are the men who bear responsibilities, who are leaders in enterprise, and who influence character. It is the work of true education to develop this power, to train the youth to be thinkers, and not mere reflectors of other men’s thoughts.” Ed 17

Second Week:

The Standard of True Education

“Higher than the highest human thought can reach is God’s ideal for His children. Godliness-godlikeness-is the goal to be reached. Before the student there is opened a path of continual progress. He has an object to achieve, a standard to attain, that includes everything good, and pure, and noble. He will advance as fast and as far as possible in every branch of true knowledge. But efforts will be directed to objects as much higher than mere selfish and temporal interests as the heavens are higher than the earth.” Ed 19

Third Week:

Jesus is Still Calling

“Parents and teachers, Jesus is still saying, ‘Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto Me.’ Matthew 19:14. They are the most susceptible to the teachings of Christianity; their hearts are open to influences of piety and virtue, and strong to retain the impressions received.” CT 180

Fourth Week:

It is the duty of the church to educate its children and youth.

“The churches in different localities should feel that a solemn responsibility rests upon them to train youth and educate talent to engage in missionary work.” CT 69

“Let all join heartily to do the utmost of their ability to support the school...; for in the hands of God it may be the means of educating workers to shed forth light of the truth upon the people. FE 211
