Journey to Excellence

A focus on Adventist education in the 21st century

The distinctive characteristics of Adventist education, derived from the Bible and the inspired writings of Ellen G. White, point to the redemptive aim of true education: "to restore human beings into the image of their Maker" (Education, 15-16).

An education of this kind imparts far more than academic knowledge. It encourages a balanced development of the whole person—physically, intellectually, socially, and spiritually. Working together, homes, schools, and churches cooperate with divine agencies in preparing learners for responsible citizenship in this world and in the world to come (see Education, 13).

Goals of Adventist Education

1. Acceptance of God
2. Commitment to the Church
3. Interpersonal Relationships
4. Responsible Citizenship
5. Healthy Balanced Living
6. Intellectual Development
7. Communication Skills
8. Personal Management
9. Aesthetic Appreciation
10. Career and Service

The standards for this document were developed from the findings of the Canada Adventist Enrolment Survey that was administered to four groups of stakeholders: school administrators, teachers, support staff and school board members in January 2008. The ideas were developed from the SDACC Education Council membership at the March 2009 visioning meeting.
